A document for all thinking men. The political letters and writings of General Scott, reviewed, discussed, and compared. His native Americanism proved by his own words! His support of the bankrupt law proved by his own words! His support of the United States bank proved by his own words! His ignorance of the Constitution proved by his own words! His hostility to Catholics proved by his own words! And, finally, his incompetency, his aristocracy, and his persevering efforts against the naturalization laws, proved by his own words! ¡Washington, 1852¡

Lewis Owen, in his "Running register," 1626 (quoted in Bridges, Restituta, v. 1, p. 142) asserts that this pamphlet was written and twice printed in the English college of Jesuits at St. Omer ; "... but the copies for the most part taken, and at two seuerall times burned at Paul's-crosse ... The authors, who were Wilson and the rest of the Jesuites there ... borrowed a famed name of one Horatio Dolabella a Neapolitan."

Dominium maris: or, The dominion of the sea. Expressing the title, which the Venetians pretend unto the sole dominion, and absolute soveraignitie of the Adriatick sea, commonly called the gulf of Venice. Manifested in a pleading or argument, betwixt the republick of Venice, and the Emperor Ferdinand. Whereby is sufficiently proved, that the sea as well as the land, is liable to the laws of proprietie, and may bee brought under the jurisdiction and protection of particular princes and states. Contrarie to the assertion of those, who affirm, the sea to be free, and under the dominion of no man.
